The history

Mercure Southampton Centre Dolphin hotel is situated in the heart of the city where it has stood for over 500 years. The Grade II listed building is the oldest hotel in Southampton and is steeped in tradition. It was also the chosen venue for Jane Austen's 18th Birthday Party.

Bedrooms

Our 99 elegantly styled bedrooms, include 11 Privilege Rooms and family rooms, are a charming blend of traditional and modern luxuries. All have satellite TV, iron and board, safe, tea and coffee making facilities, and guest toiletries. The quiriness of the hotel means that a rich variety of different room styles are available, including some in the original stables with the wooden beams still in place. Our Privilege Rooms each have a mini fridge with complimentary refreshments, Nespresso Machine, Bath Robe & Slippers, Complimentary daily newspapers, executive range of Mercure & Me toiletries and much more.

Meetings and events

The hotel's two conference rooms provide the perfect venue for any size & style of meeting or event. The self-contained Jane Austen Suite which features two stunning bay windows, reported to be among the largest in Britain, is perfect for larger meetings, events and weddings, accommodating up to 100 people. For smaller meetings, this suite can be split into two smaller rooms and there is also the Gilbert Suite which can hold up to 60 people. The hotels also has a full wedding licence and is therefore able to accommodate ceremonies here.

Restaurant & Bar

Our chefs take great pride in their work, sourcing local produce where possible, to create cuisine that suits every taste and is complemented by a range of fine wines. The hotel's Signature Restaurant, a contemporary-design brasserie offers an extensive range of international cuisine and a wide range of drinks in comfortable surroundings with a lounge menu available every day.

Getting here

The hotel is easily accessible from the M3 and M27 with convenient transport links and is in walking distance of Southampton's main shopping areas plus the historic harbour, city walls, SeaCity Museum, Cruise Terminals & Southampton FC Football Ground.
